Is help available if I cannot afford membership?

If you meet certain income limits, you may qualify for discounted membership. For more information or an application, email Doug.Gaddis@silverspringvillage.org

What happens next?

We will contact you by phone or email with information about how to get the most out of your Village experience, and we will send you the additional forms needed to complete your enrollment. If you have applied for Full Membership, we will schedule a home visit prior to your final enrollment to learn more about your support needs and to ensure we can meet your expectations.
